

“If you don’t call yourself famous, who will?”

– Lloyd Martin, Founder

Our Mission:

Bake the best products and provide the best sales distribution support.

Our commitment to quality can be seen in every aspect of our business, including our products, our ingredients, and our work ethic. We know that hard work and dedication pays off. The sweet, buttery flavor and soft, pillowy texture of Martin's Potato Rolls and Bread is a favorite among families, chefs, and foodies. Our products are sold fresh in the eastern United States and distributed to thousands of food service venues throughout the US and to more than 20 countries!

Our History:

Martin's Famous Pastry Shoppe, Inc.® is an all-American family owned and operated consumer goods company headquartered in Chambersburg, PA with a second bakery in Valdosta, GA. Martin's focuses on baking high-quality bread and roll products using high-quality ingredients. The company is rigorously dedicated to extraordinary taste, quality, and customer service that proudly represents their legacy of cherished eating experiences, which truly sets them apart from their competitors. The business has been operated by the Martin family since 1955 when Lloyd and Lois started baking products in their own garage. From selling products in local farmer's markets to having regional, national, and international distribution models, Martin's Famous Potato Rolls and Bread has indeed become "famous."
