

Cordillera Chocolate

- Made at Source - grown in Colombia, produced in Colombia with local Colombian ingredients
- Exclusive and Rare Beans – made solely with Criollo & Trinitario Beans – these beans are 10% of all cacao beans grown
- Complex Flavors - offers enjoyable flavor notes without bitterness - fruity, floral, nutty, and coffee notes
- Healthy for You - quality dark chocolate with high cocoa content is rich in fiber, iron, magnesium, copper, manganese and a few other minerals
- Antioxidants – Cocoa and dark chocolate have a wide variety of powerful antioxidants, way more than most other foods.
- Benefit to Farmers - farmers are paid higher than the requirements of Fair Trade and receive payment for their cacao in advance and in cash
- Low Impact on the Environment - by producing in country, transportation, handling and processing are reduced to a minimum
